 from home or view it on the screen in the church parking lot from the safety of their vehicles.

Charitable Donations: The Kindergarten Class is collecting canned food for Interfaith Community Services this holiday season. Collection boxes are available at curbside drop off from now until Wednesday, December 16th. Interfaith Community Services currently serves over 1,700 families that are facing food hardship. Items needed include: spaghetti sauce, pasta, peanut butter, jelly, boxed cereal, Canned fruit, canned vegetables, canned soup, canned tuna, powdered milk and jello. Please no expired food items.
 Any donation made will be greatly appreciated!

Angel Tree Donations: All 30 tags given to us from A Place Called Home were taken the first day! Please remember to return unopened gifts with the tag attached by December 9th. Thank you for helping so many children in need this season.
 Our St. Mark's ECC families rock!!
